

Black And White

Lyriel

Pass me by like snow vanishes on frozen hands
Down the spine like days without a compliment
It's been years since we have truly been one

Things I store within the deepest core
Not revealed to whom they're really meant for Everything is already said and done

Blood on my hands dripping on the floor, to my feet
Blood in my chest now racing with my heartbeat
I was condemned when I first saw you
There is no coming back from you

Stay! For day is turning into night
Stay! My eyes no longer see the light
Stay! The color's fading into black and white
Stay! For day is turning into night
Stay! My eyes no longer see the light
Stay! The colors once have been so bright
Stay black and white

Look at me as you once did with kinder eyes
I am still the one who has to pay the price
Anything you asked I did it for you

When you leave, remember the times we had
Think of me with love instead of regret
Bear in mind that I was always true

Blood on my hands dripping on the floor, to my feet
Blood in my chest now racing with my heartbeat
You were condemned when I first saw you
There is no coming back from me

Stay! For day is turning into night
Stay! My eyes no longer see the light
Stay! The color's fading into black and white
Stay! For day is turning into night
Stay! My eyes no longer see the light
Stay! The colors once have been so bright
Stay black and white

Stay with me
See the light

Turn black and white
