Padlock, padlock, padlock my heart Padlock, padlock, padlock my heart Padlock, padlock, padlock my heart Padlock, padlock, padlock my heart

Locking up, locking up now
Locking up, locking up, locking up
Locking up now
Locking up, locking up

I've done enough complaining to my girlfriends
My Romeo, you'll never ever change
All my love, got to now release it
'Cause my heart has no room in it for pain

Don't you think tomorrow we will wake up I can't believe this state of love You blew it, you blew it, you blew

So I'm padlockin' my heart, you and I are finished Padlockin' my heart, love has been evicted Padlockin' my heart, you ain't welcome here no more I'm locking up the door, I don't love you no more (Locking up, locking up now, locking up, locking up now) (Locking up, locking up now, locking up, locking up)

I've packed your things and left them in the hallway And my telephone number has been changed Pawned your ring and used the cash to celebrate Of being alone so get this through your brain

Happy free and ready for some new love (You're)
Not for me and never was
You blew it, you blew it, you blew

So I'm padlockin' my heart, you and I are finished Padlockin' my heart, love has been evicted Padlockin' my heart, you ain't welcome here no more I'm locking up the door, I don't love you no more (Locking up, locking up now, locking up, locking up now) (Locking up, locking up now, locking up, locking up)

Padlock, padlock, padlock my heart Padlock, padlock, padlock my heart

C'mon hit the road, Jack and I'll help you pack If you leave right away, it will make my day Don't wanna see you 'cause I don't need you No, no, no, no

I've done enough complaining to my girlfriends My Romeo, you'll never ever change All my love, got to now release it 'Cause my heart has no room in it for pain

Don't you think tomorrow we will wake up

I can't believe this state of love You blew it, you blew it, you blew

So I'm padlockin' my heart, you and I are finished Padlockin' my heart, love has been evicted Padlockin' my heart, you ain't welcome here no more I'm locking up the door, I don't love you no more (Locking up, locking up now, locking up, locking up now) (Locking up, locking up now, locking up, locking up)

I don't wanna see you 'cause I don't need you No, no, no, no
I don't wanna see you 'cause I don't need you No, no, no, no

I don't wanna see you 'cause I don't need you No, no, no, no
I don't wanna see you 'cause I don't need you No, no, no, no
