M. Ward

I sailed a wild, wild sea climbed up a tall, tall mountain I met an old, old man beneath a weeping willow tree He said now if you've got some questions go and lay them at my feet but my time here is brief so you'll have to pick just three

And I said
What do you do with the pieces of a broken heart and how can a man like me remain in the light and if life is really as short as they say then why is the night so long and then the sun went down and he sang for me this song

See I once was a young fool like you afraid to do the things that I knew I had to do So I played an escapade just like you I played an escapade just like you
I sailed a wild, wild sea
climbed up a tall, tall mountain
I met an old, old man
he sat beneath a sapling tree
He said now if you've got some questions
so you'll have to pick just three

And I said
What do you do with the pieces of a broken heart
and how can a man like me remain in the light
and if life is really as short as they say
and then the sun went down and he played for me this song
