

She's Really All I Need

Mac DeMarco

Up out of bed at 3 and I feel like I'm dying
But if she's there next to me, then there's no use in crying
'Cause she's really all I need, it's true my heart is flying
Life can be such a breeze as long as it's just her and me

Don't bring me down man wearing that frown man now
It's trials from my brain step into my frame now

I smell your arts degree, it's telling me I'm lazy
I'm working, so I can eat, so keep that shit away from me
'Cause she's really all I need and up until I'm dying
Life can be such a breeze as long as it's just her and me

Don't bring me down man wearing that frown man now
It's trials from my brain step into my frame now
Don't bring me down man wearing that frown man now
It's trials from my brain step into my frame now
Don't bring me down man wearing that frown man now
It's trials from my brain step into my frame now
