Make You Mine

Something about what you've done to me baby I wanna make you mine You really bring out the best in me baby can I make you mine

I went bad on a bitch but I don't love her She want an apology but I ain't Rueben Studdard I'm buttered so she jock me style She buttered but she not me style She don't got it and she ain't trying to have it Man I'm lavish and got expensive habits If I stab it what can she offer Naw sir dreezy ain't gon toss her And she thick to but I dont want her yokes I want all her federal reserve notes I'm better with no hoes over a broke one I'll take the ugliest bitch in Oakland And come through yokin Chucky Cheesed up You broke bitches got me fucked up I'm a rich nigga I got lawyers You broke I cant do nothin but ignore ya

Something about what you've done to me baby I wanna make you mine You really bring out the best in me baby can I make you mine

Lyrics This crazy motherfucker wanna be my chick Always trying to fuck and suck my dick I won't happen you ain't got no mail You ain't got a snowballs chance in hell I'm from Vallejo where most niggaz is pimps We eat butterfly tiger prawns not scrimps On the other side of the fence is what's crackin' Can you detect some slackin' in my mackin? You can't try it unless you buy it Broke bitch got my dick on a diet Can't fuck on her and no I don't want her This is O.J. Simpson pimping not homer

Something about what you've done to me baby I wanna make you mine You really bring out the best in me baby can I make you mine

She trying to makeme hers But I can't be hers Unless I'm goosing her for chips and I'm taking hers Trying to live so fat I gotta watch calories It's all about a salary and that's reality I'm a book you shouldn'y judge by its cover hoe I been getting doe since Young Black Brother hoe I'm a brother that can make things happen Jacking acting macking rapping Let's get it crackin get the slacking out Everyday I blow a half an ounce I like to smash and bounce in all new whips What can we do if you ain't got a few chips? Take a few sips of this game I poured It's money in these streets and it can't be ignored It's money in these streets and it can't be ignored
