Can you turn the beat up? A little louder... There ya go. Some people (oh whoa-oh-oh) Whoa-oh-oh (uhn-nuh-unh-nuh) Yea, people say, people-oh-oh (people-oh-oh) People love you when they on your mind A thought is love's currency And I been thinking about her all the time I never seen somebody put together perfectly What would I have to do to call you mine? Someone like you is so hard to find You can open up your eyes or you can walk in blind All I ask is that you hurry, I won't hurt you don't you worry Listen to me, I'ma set you free He ain't gonna break your heart again Go through the worst to reach the ecstasy When your imagination's on pretend I never thought that it would feel this way You never taught me how to heal the pain I wish you caught me on a different day When it was easier to be happy So just a little taste and you know she got you Can you hide away, can you hide away? The sound of silence as they all just watch you I kinda find it strange How the times have changed But I wish, we could go and be free, once Baby, you and me We could change the world forever And never come back again Let's leave it all in the rear-view Let's leave it all in the rear-view, girl You don't have to cry You don't have to cry You don't have to cry no more You don't have to cry no more You don't have to cry no more, little girl You don't have to cry Mend a broken heart girl if you can I don't expect you to be capable You got the world right in your hands And that responsibility is inescapable I promise that I'll be a different man Please give me the chance to go and live again I'm having some trouble, can you give a hand? It seems perfection really is so unobtainable Don't even say you about to end it all Your life precious ain't a need to go and kill yourself I'm not so sure that there's an end at all I wish the truth would just reveal itself Who do you call to make it to the top?

And who do you call to make the shootin' stop?

And who do you call to give the coupe a wash? After everything I did I think I'm still myself

So just a little taste and you know she got you Can you hide away, can you hide away? The sound of silence as they all just watch you I kinda find it strange How the times have changed But I wish, we could go and be free, once Baby, you and me We could change the world forever And never come back again Let's leave it all in the rear-view Let's leave it all in the rear-view, girl Oh-oh-oh Let's leave it all in the rear-view Whoa-oh-oh, whoa-oh-oh Let's leave it all in the rear-view, girl You don't have to cry You don't have to cry Whoa-oh-oh (yeah) Let's leave it all in the rear-view Whoa-oh-oh-oh Whoa-oh-oh-oh
