

They try to beat me but they will not ever defeat me
This time we're on my battlegrounds I'm gonna win, trust in me I have come to save this world and in the end I'll get the grrrl!

I've missed it, so twisted and unsurpassed in my head This sense of power has awakened in me I feel I could take on the world a day like this my rage is brewing like a storm

And now the storm has grown out of control
Right here, the voice of anger taking tone
Cause now the fire in our hearts explode Baby, let's blow this joint and build our own

Sometimes you just need to level everything with the ground to make room for all the things you wanted somehow
And I have known it all along the day is coming when you will reap your evil ways
