I can say that I made it Cuz in my heart I'm the greatest (yeah) I been through it all This song is for everyone out there Who's ever made it through the hard times You know? I been through it all For everyone whos ever had to struggle For what they wanted in life This song is for everyone who had to sit through the dark days Before they saw the light For everyone who's been through it all I been through it all Shoutout to my fans man This ones for yall baby Uh, I been through it all Crazy, because I never thought I'd say that Naw, the cost to be the boss, never though I'd paid that Headed to the top Without the friends I've had since way back ... experiences watching my life play back Damn, and I aint never sold a brick But I could show you where to get it And I could show you how to flip My whole life has been a hustle Since my momma bounced on her kid And I aint never scared of drama I was born up in the shit Cuz it was once upon a time mother fucker We were fine and I was just a little snobby mother fucker Then it changed Now these people wanna ride me mother fucker New environment I pops like get a job mother fucker Yeah so I did that wasn't with that so I quit that Told them about my dreams and then they laughed But I spit that fire couldn't deny it so to quiet that with chip yeah They'd shut it up and still I won't forget that Man fuck y'all And I won't put that behind me Even though I left the past And I'm still the kid now Even though I left the class I'm on and it took everything from A to Z to do it So anything I'm talking I've been through it I been through it all Had to hustle just to make it through the struggles But I still won't let that get me down Threw my bills into music So the world can hear me all around Every town and Every city Every state and every country I can say that I made it Cause in my heart I'm the greatest Because I been through it all

Look in April I was born at 14 I was a felon By 18 I had been to more funerals than a Reverand And right when I felt like I's give it up look what they sent me My beautiful baby girl straight out of heaven And I love you girl And even though that was never a part of the plan And people doubted it because of who I am I hope they understand That at 19 with the world in my hands I stepped up and handled that shit like a man I've been homeless I've been broke Done every drug except for coke I done fucked for my life Been jumped shot at and more I've been rich and I've been poor Had to steal from the store On nights there wasn't shit to eat Seen my best friends go down So what the fuck could you possibly say to me The verict is I'm the truth And you can thank todays jury But if you wanna judge come walk a mile in my chucks But the world sucks, better Lace Up, Ughk

I been through it all
Had to hustle just to make it through the struggles
But I still won't let that get me down
Threw my bills into music
So the world can hear me all around
Every town and
Every city
Every state and every country
I can say that I made it
Cause in my heart I'm the greatest
Because I been through it all

Ok, I been made out to be a monster But the only thing aggresive about me is the will that I have to conquer I told them I was the best And they doubted but no longer Out of all the... they could hear my hunger And if that's wrong than I don't wanna be right I'm always dreamin' so I'm gone in the night And now it's reality I'm calling home like I'll be gone on this flight But how can I contact a place that doesn't exist in my life Home, I guess that I'll just be alone for the ride And live vicariously through anothers eyes Add it on to the list of lies So my girl doesn't trust me for shit Probably cuz after my momma left I ain't trusted a chick Shit and my father drowning his problems with the bottle While I'm playing my... I can see tomorrow Cause cancer ain't a joke And I just lost one of my best friends To the pen so I don't wanna live again I been through it

Had to hustle just to make it through the struggles But I still won't let that get me down Threw my bills into music So the world can hear me all around I been through it all Every town and
Every city
Every state and every country
I can say that I made it
Cause in my heart I'm the greatest
Because I been through it all

And if you ever have a dream
Don't be scared to chase that shit man
You can have whatever you want in this life
Don't let anyone tell you different
And shoutout to my fans for helping me achieve my dreams
