Beautiful Mourning

Machine Head

Fuck you all

My redemption is knowing
This will be over
My aggression, I fear I've lost control

Who is this man I said? Mirror reflects a stranger Fist shatters the despair Awake the pain to anger

Do I close thine eyes of murder? Do I close thine eyes of murder Staring into me?

My obsession is dying Sinking me deeper My depression This world has disavowed

Razor at wrist I seethe
The flesh is peeled apart now
Gone is my faded dream
Failure, I welcome in thou

Do I close thine eyes of murder? Do I close thine eyes of murder Staring into me?

Oh, this lifetime in sorrow God, let the angels die (Let the angels die) This is our last goodbye (Our last goodbye)

In love and death we cry
(Death we cry)
Our last goodbye, go

No, no, no

Spit in the face of loss Coward, my own self-hatred No more I bear this cross Struggle and rise from the dead

This lifetime in sorrow (The angels die)
This is our last goodbye (Our last goodbye)
In love and death we cry
