

Let You Win

Macy Gray

I think I know all about you
Who you been Where you been
What you been
And I can't decide on your rollercoaster ride or your merry-go-'round
Take me 'round and 'round
And I'm waiting while you're breaking away

And if I had to do it over, I'd see you again
I'd do it right and when we fight I'd let you win 'cause my world is nearly nothing without you in it
Should-a let it go
Could-a let it go
Could-a let you win

I get a taste of the summer sun every time you walk into my door
Yeah, we laugh and we tease
Yeah, you're so easy but I ain't satisfied 'til I make you cry
And I'm shaking while you're breaking away

And if I had to do it over, I'd see you again
I'd do it right and when we fight I'd let you win 'cause my world is nearly nothing without you in it
Should-a let it go
Could-a let it go
Could-a let you win

You know I'm right baby, most of the time
Oh baby
Yeah baby
You think you're right baby, most of the time
Oh baby
Yeah baby
There's no way (No way), no how (No how) I can live without you now
Baby, I surrender
Yeah, I'm throwin' in the towel
Puttin' my hands up 'cause I need you now

And if I had to do it over, I'd see you again
I'd do it right and when we fight I'd let you win 'cause my world is
nearly nothing without you in it
Should-a let it go
Could-a let it go
Could-a let you win
Let you win, let you win
Let you win, let you win, let you win
Let you win
I give in
Let you win
Wanna see you again
