

Rather Hazy

Macy Gray

I said I loved him and forever I would stay
Took everything he had and ran away.
He reminded but I guess it's been a while
Cause it's rather hazy to me now,
Rather hazy to me now. (repeat)

I said that I'd be true and love until the end
Then he caught me messin' with his friend
He reminded me but I guess it's been awhile
Cause it's rather hazy to me now,
Rather hazy to me now.

Thought my sense was washed away
Wracked my brain on why you stay
So easy to be good to him,
I don't think I've ever been.
Maybe shady, maybe cowardly
I turned and gave him no apologies
Said I'll see you 'round, don't know what you talking 'bout

Don't remember guess it's been awhile,
Cause it's rather hazy to me now (to me now)
(Repeat 4x)
