

Brand New Gun (Bang Boom Bang)

Mad Sin

[Chorus:]

My baby had a brand new gun
Bang Boom Bang, never heard no sadder sound
I said my baby had a brand new gun
Scratch my fucking brains off the ground

Life was a bad dream, love was insane
Looking back on a life of pain
I lay in darkness, she owns the light
Here in my box, peace I'll never find
How should I've sensed the murder in command?
My brains had been blown
Out of the ground I cry

[Chorus]

I've been forsaken, demonized and sacked
And I see the abyss staring black
There was a time when the sky was blue
How could I've known that she could be so cruel?
And who'll save the flowers on my grave?
Out of the ground I cryyy?

[Chorus 2x]
