

Dead End

Mad Sin

i was walking down an alley at night as i met this crazy girl on my way my heart started pounding you wouldn't believe what i felt and she said where do you go, where do you go i'm in a rapid state, i just need something to do i got the wine, you got the dope something brought us together why don't we have a go we ended up in my place and she gave me those crazy pills then i just never came down i see everything fading away i don't know where do i go, where do i go i just don't have a clue, something's wrong with me in the eyes of the observer i might be fucking sick dead end, there is no way out dead end, no doubt about
