

Houdinis Pool

Mad Sin

Come..., come..., comatized... buried deep and deadly lies
Freedom for fools is what they sell
A clone is what you are, an extincted falling star
Truth can't be seen under their spell
So sad to see you fall, another brainwashed cupi-doll
Numb is your skull, now it's too late
How sick you must be to live in someone else's dream
Inhumanate and suffocate

[Chorus:]

Petrifaction - freeze the blood inside my veins
You fell from grace and left without a trace
Petrifaction, baby - the truth can be so cruel
Another useless soul in the ship of fools
Houdini's pool

You've gone without a fight, ballistic fucking suicide
And now the system owns your head
How sick you must be to live in someone else's dream
Your poisoned brain left you for dead

[Chorus 2x]
