

Into the Valley

Mad Sin

rockets streaming people screaming the rain from the sky brings death generals laughing their stars are flashing with anticipation of the flesh men are wheezing horses gasping with anticipation of the kill infatuation with extermination into the valley out of the thunder they rode into the valley of fear into the valley out of the thunder they killed never shedding a tear all the nameless faceless souls are roasting in the sun you sit in front of your tv screen and your heart is filled with joy every bullet brings you more cash and that's what you enjoy and you think to yourself how good it is to know god is on your side into the valley out of the thunder they rode into the valley to die into the valley out of the thunder they killed and they never a sked
why