

Mad to the Bone

Mad Sin

sweat is running down my spine thunder gonna set a sign i'm on my way to be a new born guy, alright my reputation ain't that good but you're addicted to my blood touch me girl, i'm mad to the bone good for anything that goes. well i let loose you'll feel
the shivers from your mind box
to your toes
a different mentality than you're narrow minded authority outta my way, i'm mad to the bone just another drink in sincity just another broken heart in sincity gettin' wild, gettin' sad sometimes high but always mad sincity calling for me
sincity calling for me
sincity calling for me
i hear the angels whisperin' to me nice girls are so innocent bad girls give me shock treatment enjoy the fuckin' damage that they done to me let's have a barbecue menu and a strychnine shake with mary lou I love you, you'r mad to the bone
good for anything that goes. well i let loose
you'll feel
my reputation ain't that good but
