Moonlight Shadows

Mad Sin

All the subtle flavors of my life Are become bitter seeds And poisoned leaves Without you

You represent what's true
I drain the color from the sky
And turn blue
Without you

These arms lack a purpose
Flapping like a humming bird
I'm nervous 'cause
I'm the left eye
You're the right
Would it not be madness to fight
We come 1

In you the song which rights my wrongs In you the fullness of living
