Out Off My Head

Mad Sin

i like to surf on a tombstone in the middle of the night out on an action patrol to see what i might find the city eats the children away and we won't stay clear if you ever come to town you wouldn't believe what you see hey hey hey need no excuse we do it anyway hey hey hey and it doesn't matter what they say day by day i'm out off my head she's a kid a 13 years out in the jungle but she shows no fear the strangers are scared from the creatures of night but if you're ok you can walk on our side life's a bitch and then you'll die so make sure you live no lie bye bye i think i've got to go cause my fuses have blown away hey hey hey... day by day we're out off our heads
