

Walk Away

Madball

You've played yourself out
So just go on your way
You choose your fate now
If you decide to stay
It's not pity that saves you
'Cause you're given a chance
I've helped myself out
By taking this stance

So don't look back now
There's nothing to say
You should be grateful to walk away
