

M for Malice

Madder Mortem

Hold the curse close to your chest
Now let the game begin Whisper a silence of disease that will never end

M for malice
M for modesty

Just give the changer all control and the pallid king your hand Lay your head gently down on hate that will never bend

M for malice
M for modesty
M for me

Where no haven can be found only the purpose can remain
Let it drown all pain
Let it drown all fear
All things broken, all things sworn
All this the malice will replace
Let it drown all fear
Let it drown all pain

Let no sorrow hold you down
Let the weight of good recede
It will drown all pain
It will drown all fear

M for malice
M for modesty

We repay
