

One Minute

Madilyn Bailey

I can't ever win when I'm fighting
With myself I can only pretend
For so long till I'm losing to myself
But my heart is fighting with my head
It's a hopeless case from start to end
I'll second-guess every step I take
I'm still stuck in the same stalemate
One minute to think I'm better without you
And the next I think how stupid to doubt you
I go for wanting you to wanting nothing to do with you
And I'll say baby please stay then I say why can't you just go away
But I can't get away from you because I love you I need you can't stand you
I feel like I'm going crazy
Talk to myself in the mirror
It doesn't help anyway I'm still torn
It doesn't help me see any clearer
'Cause when my heart is fighting with my head
It's a battle that has no end
It's a tug a war that's got me going back and forth
One minute to think I'm better without you
And the next I think how stupid to doubt you
I go for wanting you to wanting nothing to do with you
And I'll say baby please stay then I say why can't you just go
Because I can't get away from you because I love you I need you can't stand you
I'm so unsteady and subtle and stable
So I decided I hate the hands of station?
Doubtful faltered and labor required
And I just make up my mind
One minute to think I'm better without you
And the next I think how stupid to doubt you
I can't get away from you cause I love you
One minute to think I'm better without you
And the next I think how stupid to doubt you
I can't get away from you cause I love you
One minute to think
One minute
One minute
One minute
One minute
One minute
