

Long drive, bitter day
Grey skies cover Michigan.
In notime, I'll her away.
And after that, I'll never see her again.
You know that we had everything.
So why are you happening to me?
Oh star crossed lovers torn apart.
We crossed five oceans but I'm back where I started.

Now, that it's over, I'm moving on.
I'm not getting under your landslide.
Now that it's over, I'll walk away.
I'm moving on.
Now that it's over, I'm moving on.
I gotta life of mine to live.
Now that it's over, I'll walk away.
I'm moving on.

Driving home this time alone.
No idea where my life will go.
And now her head's on another chest.
As she forgets everything we had.
You know that we had everything.
Oh, starcrossed lovers torn apart.
We crossed five oceans but I'm back where I started.

Now, that it's over, I'm moving on.
I'm not getting under your landslide.
Now that it's over, I'll walk away.
I'm moving on.
Now that it's over, I'm moving on.
I gotta life of mine to live.
Now that it's over, I'll walk away.
I'm moving on.

How'd you go turn it off.
When the night before is the best that it ever got.
Where'd you go zombie girl?
Who put all the poison in to your world?
It's not the sex and it's not the laughs.
How it felt just to hold your hand.
It's not the lonely, not the sadness.
It's star crossed lovers broken hearted.

Now, that it's over, I'm moving on.
I'm not getting under your landslide.
Now that it's over, I'll walk away.
I'm moving on.
Now that it's over, I'm moving on.
I gotta life of mine to live.
Now that it's over, I'll walk away.
I'm moving on.
