

Sirens

Madrugada

With hearts below us
Like rock and skin
At peace with evil
And all within

A shadow looms above the river
And fire sweeps across the land
Our bones are twisting in their sockets
And even we must try to stand alone
Right here alone, yeah

Fire in work beneath your skin
Forever let us sleep
'Till sirens tear the night wide open
And even we awake, love

Oh listen
The world is awake
Oh it's time for the towers to rise
And the blood of the engines
Heeeeey alone lone lone lone lone
Lone with evil, lone

And alone
Right here alone, yeah

Alone, oh ho oh
Alone, yeah
Lone, lone, lone
