The Lost Gospel

Madrugada

Oh Lord When your heart beats within mine Oh mine Am I in anyway divine? Or still twisted and unkind?

And low down In the misty gorges of time

Well oh Lord When your heart beats within mine No I never ever want this thing to pass One should never fall in love with things that last Last only for a day And they'll stay with you for another day

Well oh Lord When your heart beats within mine Oh mine Am I in any way divine? Or still twisted and unkind?

Oh no I never ever want this thing to pass One should never fall in love with things that last Last only for a day And they'll stay with you for another day

Well I can hear your heart beat As we are lifted off the ground It's all around

Oh no I never ever want this thing to pass One should never fall in love with things that last Last only for a day And they'll stay with you for another day

No no I never ever want this thing to pass One should never fall in love with things that last Last only for a day And they'll stay with you for another da