

I'm Leaving

Mads Langer

I don't need a wire
I don't need a gun
To kill the things you have in mind
No, no, no

I feel with your desire
So I'm gonna run away,
Leave you behind,
You might say I'm running in blind

But I've lost my faith in life and death
I've lost my faith in hope and love is just deceiving
I've lost my faith in grace and God
I've lost my faith in you and me
So I'm leaving

You don't need to listen
Cause you can hear the frequencies
I am singing in
No, no, no...

I don't know what is missing
But the end is here
And there is no a new beginning
No, no, no...

I've lost my faith in life and death
I've lost my faith in hope and love is just deceiving
I've lost my faith in grace and God
I've lost my faith in you and me
so I'm leaving

And after the sunset
there will be a sunrise
I won't you to awake for hurt

And after the sunset
there will be a sunrise
I won't you to awake for hurt

I apologize, I apologize,
I apologize...

But I've lost my faith in life and death
I've lost my faith in hope and love is just deceiving
I've lost my faith in grace and God
I've lost my faith in you
so I'm leaving

I'm leaving
I'm leaving
I'm leaving

I'm leaving.
