

Rearranged

Mads Langer

Watching people passing by, the river line is on my mind
And so are you
Highlights of my past is following me to the graveyard
Still I am black and blue

It snows with darkness
It quiets down with snow
Sorrow will hurt the night
My fire will meet your snow

Oh yeah, oh yeah
you forgot to say that you have changed
Oh yeah, oh yeah
Now my future has been rearranged
Rearranged
Rearranged

Jumping around in a space that's way to small for memory chase
Don't leave me here
Electric lights illuminate the path of fate, the crossroad escape
What is left to fear?

It rains with silence
It silents down with rain
'morrow will hurt tonight
My fire will lead your rain

Oh yeah, oh yeah
You forgot to say that you have changed
Oh yeah, oh yeah
Now my future has been rearranged
Rearranged
Rearranged

We might have been lost
We might have been lost
In a dream
But I keep my fingers crossed
But we might have been lost
In a dream

Oh yeah, oh yeah
You forgot to say that you have changed
Oh yeah, oh yeah
Now my future has been rearranged
