

Funny how I take it all wrong
When you lay the cheer on
It's stupid how I buy more things
When suddenly you grow your wings
Don't you know that redhead cat
Don't you know that redhead cat
Don't you know that redhead cat
Redhead cat
I'm running to an edge of white
I'm sitting on pink Dyno-mite
I knew that it would come to this
That demons would possess your kiss
Don't you know that redhead cat
Don't you know that redhead cat
Don't you know that redhead cat
Redhead cat
Don't you know that redhead cat
Don't you know that redhead cat
Don't you know that redhead cat
Redhead cat
