

Master Of Madness

Magic Kingdom

Mysteries of your life are hidden in the Ivory Tower
The science of your works
Defends our people and kingdom
You are the only one, chosen by angels and Gods
You know that something grows
You visions revealed that a threat is coming soon
Master of Madness, leads the holy light
You keep the secret of the potion of the gods
Conquest by fire and rain of blood
Hunting the shadows of the Black Abyss, we pray, we sing
In the circle of Eternal Lords

Master of madness, kings of the kings
Possessed by spells and your golden rings
After the darkness, the blood of the war
Shall bring us the holy Throne

The fury is raging
The beast is seeking your treasures
The fortress is falling
Tonight we won't break free from hell
The voice of Heaven calls
We will fight with the heart of the brave
We'll save our freedom
We'll get back the light
In the name of the timeless cross
Master of madness lives for the steel
Alchemy's fire, wisdom of the kings
After the storm and the holy war
Army of darkness will fall again
We'll pray, we'll sing
For the glory of the mighty Lords

Master of madness, kings of the kings
Possessed by spells and your golden rings
After the darkness, the blood of the war
Shall bring us the holy Throne

Master of Madness!
