

You'll Be Damned

Magic Kingdom

One day in my life is worse than you think Clouds are always black and light does not even appear I see all these faces, they pretend they are my friends
I know very well that's not the truth 'cause you stick a knife in my back
I've never felt so sad
Why are people always telling lies to feel stronger than they really are?
I'll never understand

Run while you can
I just want to catch you, you will pay
Scream as long as you live
I just want to break you, you'll be damned

We are not out of reach of expanding insanity
We'll have to build a strong defence to keep our lives in the right way
But my revenge will form ten thousand oceans of blood
The sword of justice will vanquish this sea of jealousy
Your evil works will end
I've been taken in by the illusions of a mad man You'll regret all your lies

Run while you can
I just want to catch you, you will pay
Scream as long as you live
I just want to break you, you'll be damned
Run while you can
I just want to catch you, you will pay
Scream as long as you live
