

Secrets Within

Magnitude 9

They cover up lies, a creative disguise, do you believe all that is said?

They've programmed the masses, controlling our minds

Now the trap has been set, false accusation of fraud and deceit

They prey on the old and the young,

they take from poor for the elite smashing the hardworkings ones

This is the master plan, and their hiding behind their secrets within

It's time to begin and we'll never be told the secrets within

Don't you believe what they're telling you

Dont't be deceived what they're selling you

Twisting their stories to mimic the truth,

They're hiding the secrets from you

Conspiracy theories are actually truth

but the witness is hidden from the view breaking down walls by kicking in doors

They're banning your weapons as threats taking your money to fund foreign wars

The punk down the street bought an Uzi 'collect'

This is the masterplan.....

Don't you believe what they're telling you

Dont't be deceived what they're selling you

[solo]

This is the masterplan.....
