

All England's Eyes

Magnum

Not forsaken
Another heart
They lie taken
In foreign parts

Someone breaking
Another heart
They lie waiting
In foreign parts

Old England's skies
Turn black and she cries
Wet again
All England's eyes
Turn black and they cry
Yet again

Standing over
Another heart
Winds blow colder
In foreign parts

And the nameless
The sacred heart
Come to claim us
From foreign parts

Old England's skies
Turn black and she cries
Wet again
All England's eyes
Turn black and they cry
Yet again

Old England's skies
Turn black and she cries
Wet again
All England's eyes
Turn black and they cry
Yet again

Old England's skies
Turn black and she cries
Wet again
All England's eyes
Turn black and they cry
Yet again
