

Broken Wheel

Magnum

You cried all night
It looks like rain upon your face
Come early light
It's time to get back in the race
Now there's no doubt
The world's a cold and lonely place
It sucks you in
Chews you up and spits you out

But I know where you've been
That door's easy to walk in

Like a broken wheel stops turning
You ain't going nowhere
Now you've got to heal that burning
Or you ain't got a prayer
Like a broken wheel

You're not alone
Someone somewhere feels just like you
But you don't know
Which way to turn or what to do
No need to ask
I'll pull you through these troubled times
So hold on fast
I'll drag you to the finish line

'Cause I know where you've been
That door's easy to walk in

Like a broken wheel stops turning
You ain't going nowhere
Now you've got to heal that burning
Or you ain't got a prayer
Like a broken wheel

Had enough, now your heart's breaking
Bad enough you hesitating
Keep your head, you got to stand your ground
A fool for love, you get mistaken
Can't forget the hurt you've taken
This old world has really got you down

Like a broken wheel stops turning
You ain't going nowhere
Now you've got to heal that burning
Or you ain't got a prayer
Like a broken wheel
Like a broken wheel
Like a broken wheel
Like a broken wheel
