

Invasion

Magnum

You wouldn't believe your eyes
You wouldn't believe your ears
Out of the dawning skies
Suddenly it appeared
I wonder why they're here
Do they understand?
Seems they will destroy
Someone's master plan

Looking across the sea
Looking across the land
Wondering what they'll find
Wondering what's at hand
Breathing in the air
Feel the falling rain
Getting all prepared
For the final day

From out of the crimson air
Suddenly came the fire
Look at the flaming sky
See how the flames grow higher
Alien, your day
Is it not too near?
All the people say
Let the world be free

You wouldn't believe your eyes
You wouldn't believe your ears
Into the dawning skies
Suddenly disappeared
Set their course for Mars
Leave the world behind
Tracking through the stars
