

Red on the Highway

Magnum

It's red on the highway
Diamonds in the sky
A million stilettos
Cutting tears from your eye
It's peppered with star shell
It's pouring silver rain
You're falling like lumber
But you're feeling no pain

You can't run
Can't run
Can't run away
Can't run
Can't run
Can't run away

There's blood in the river
Terror spikes your soul
It's louder than thunder
Way down deep in this hole
There's a light in the mountain
A fireball in the town
Tornado in the making
And a shaking in the ground

You can't run
Can't run
Can't run away
Can't run
Can't run
Can't run away

Oh, no, trapped in the shadows
Feeling ragged and torn
Radio messages
Bringing no help at all
Way down deep in this hole
There's a light in the mountain
A fireball in the town
Tornado in the making
And a shaking in the ground

You can't run
Can't run
Can't run away
Can't run
Can't run
Can't run away

You can't run
Can't run
Can't run away
Can't run, can't run, can't run
Can't run
We can't run away
