

Thank You for the Day

Magnum

No answers to all your questions
No gun at your head
But you will see
Don't dwell on your rejections
Just you let them be

Some people will try and tell you
You're wasting your time
But they don't know
They've been nowhere, didn't want to
And they'll never go

It's a precious thing
You don't want to lose
But with every word you say
All that you can bring
You don't get to choose
Please don't throw it all away

Now I feel better
Thank you for the day, for the day
We'll last forever
Thank you for the day, for the day

Be careful, you could be sorry
You'll wake up and find
When you come down
No reason for you to worry
You'll still be around
