

The Last Goodbye

Magnum

No more reasons why
It's your turn to cry
You're hurting inside
No more faith in you
You're dark side's come through
Don't know what to do

The days, they just fly
Since the last goodbye

Can't sleep
Don't want to
Too deep
You'll fall in
No fear
Tomorrow
No tears
Keep them in

No more lies
No more alibis
You can't take
Heartbroken
You can't face
Being alone

No more need to trust
The stakes just went up
You're all out of luck
Nothing left to say
The same every day
It won't go away

And how the days, they just fly
Since the last goodbye

Can't sleep
Don't want to
Too deep
You'll fall in
No fear
Tomorrow
No tears
Keep them in

No more lies
No more alibis
You can't take
Heartbroken
You can't face
Being alone

Now you're walking along by yourself
And there's thunderclouds over your head
You don't know but you talk to yourself
And your looks could be waking the dead

And how the days just fly
Since the last goodbye

No more lies
No more alibis

You can't sleep
Don't want to
Too deep
You'll fall in
No fear
Tomorrow
No tears
Keep them in

You can't sleep
Don't want to
Too deep
You'll fall in
No fear
Tomorrow
No tears
Keep them in
