

The Scarecrow

Magnum

Let me tell you what it's all about
If you just listen, well then you will know
It's a story you might work it out
There's no great decision, it's all for show

Sunrise every morning
Each day a new surprise
But when he's all, he's torn and faded
And he can't see through those eyes

Where we go, he can't follow - he's got to stay
Forever face tomorrow - another day
What we got, he can't borrow - can't run away
His nights are filled with sorrow - his days are grey

Now there's nothing to be frightened of
So come a bit closer and just take my hand
He's not an eagle, he's a peaceful dove
When you get older, you'll understand

Sunrise every morning
Each day a new surprise
But when he's all, he's torn and faded
And we just can't believe our eyes

Where we go he, can't follow - he's got to stay
Forever face tomorrow - another day
What we got, he can't borrow - can't run away
His nights are filled with sorrow - his days are grey

Where we go he, can't follow - he's got to stay
Forever face tomorrow - another day
What we got, he can't borrow - can't run away
His nights are filled with sorrow - his days are grey

Be yourself, you're the one
Don't you be like anyone
Be yourself, you're the one
Don't you be like anyone
Be yourself, you're the one
Don't you be like anyone
Be yourself, you're the one
Don't you be like anyone
