

Too Much to Ask

Magnum

I've been looking for a lover
Going to help me out of trouble
I want someone to believe in
Hold me down without a struggle
I want more than clothes and make up
I need love and conversation
I want someone to be waiting
So much give and so much taking

I've got ideas on my mind
I'm going to make them come true
I want you

Is that too much, too much to ask?
Too much, too much, too fast
Oh, me, I don't want anyone
I want you

Want a dedicated woman
Don't want countless explanations
Too much talk and saying nothing
Don't want clever imitations
I need love and understanding
I get high on expectations
Will you tell me what you're thinking
About every situation?

I've got ideas on my mind
I'm going to make them come true
I want you

Too much, too much to ask?
Too much, too much, too fast
Oh, me, I don't want anyone
I want you

I've been looking for a lover
Going to help me out of trouble

Is that too much, too much to ask?
Oh, me, I don't want
Oh, me, I don't want, no, no
Too much, too much, too much, too much
Too much, too fast, too fast, too fast
Too much, too much, too fast
Too much, too much, too fast
Oh, me, I don't want
Oh, me, I don't want, no, no
Too much
Too much
Too much
Too much
