

Here we go
Through the wide
Open spaces
Oh, cold winds blow
Sands of time
In our faces

Beggars plead
Others greed
In high places
Oh, love is won
Love is lost
Leaves no traces

Take your eyes
Across the sea
Past the mountains
Oh, do you hear
Though it's far
Someone's counting

People write
Armies fight
Children shouting
Oh, love is won
Love is real
Love's a fountain

Who holds the answer to the universe?
Who holds the answer to the universe?
Who holds the answer to the universe?

Eagles fly
Past the sun
To the rainbow
Yes, they decide
Where they're from
Where they can go

But no one cries
Someone hides
In the shadow
Oh, love is kind
Love is yours
Love is mellow

Who holds the answer to the universe?
Who holds the answer to the universe?
Who holds the answer to the universe?
Who holds the answer to the universe?
Who holds the answer to the universe?
