

Everything You Do

Magnus Uggla

Everything you do is alright aah aah aaaaah.
Everything you do is alright aah aaaaah.
You got me where you want me,
I don't wanna break away,
and until I change my mind, that's how it will stay.

I used to go out by myself,
I wasn't fun to be with, I was bad for your health.
My only friends where always strangers,
it's easy to say goodbye when you've just said hello.

When used in to do,
just like the taste of something new,
all my senses starting buzzing,
and I surrender to you.
So now you got me....

Everything you do is alright aah aah aaaaah.
Everything you do is alright aah aaaaah.
You got me where you want me,
I don't wanna break away,
and until I change my mind, that's how it will stay.

I never knew how much I could change,
I wasn't bothered when people said I was strange.
I lived my life the way I wanted,
no one else was in it, all I thought of was me.

But you turned it right around,
made me live the other way,
and before I knew what hit me,
I surrendered today.

I always though I shouldn't be here,
I could make it on my own, and I want to be alone.
That's how it went...
But now it's changed, my head's rearranged, the money's been spent.
So now you got me....

Everything you do is alright aah aah aaaaah.
Everything you do is alright aah aaaaah.
You got me where you want me,
I don't wanna break away,
and until I change my mind, that's how it will stay.

Everything you do is alright,
everything you do is alright,
everything you do is alright.
