

Am I Keeping You

Mainstay

Give me one more chance tonight
to keep you waiting for nothing

Give me one more chance tonight
to keep you waiting for nothing
and make you stay here in this place where you are only what they say you are

You can save the lie,
we are the ones
we are the ones
who've seen the other side Say our own goodbyes,
leaving the world
leaving the world
and all our cares behind

Give me one more chance today to keep you sitting in one place Riding on the fence you're made, you're only partly dying this way
This way

You can save the lie,
we are the ones
we are the ones
who've seen the other side
Say our own goodbyes,
leaving the world
leaving the world
and all our cares behind

Am I keeping you from life?
Or am I keeping you alive?

We are the ones
We are the ones
We are the ones
We are the ones
who've seen the other side
Say our own goodbyes,
leaving the world
leaving the world
and all our cares behind

We are the ones
We are the ones
We are the ones
We are the ones
We are the ones
We are the ones
