

Become Who You Are

Mainstay

So it seems that I'm wrong 'cuz you said that I would never want for anything again
But my eyes are set low and I'm holding To the things I know I can't keep

I keep on chasing the wrong things and coming up empty
This isn't who I'm supposed to be
I keep on learning the hard way from every mistake
And I'm finding each time that you fall, you're just becoming w ho you are

So it seems that I'm wrong 'cuz I keep on Searching for the answers that I don't need
I know I don't need

I keep on chasing the wrong things and coming up empty
This isn't who I'm supposed to be
I keep on learning the hard way from every mistake
And I'm finding each time that you fall, you're just becoming w ho you are

Becoming who you are You're just becoming, just becoming
You're just becoming, just becoming

I keep on chasing the wrong things and coming up empty
This isn't who I'm supposed to be
I keep on learning the hard way from every mistake
And I'm finding each time that you fall, you're just becoming w ho you are

I'm finding each time that you fall, I'm finding each time that you fall
We're finding each time that you fall, you're just becoming who you are
