

Believe

Mainstay

I don't know if I still have the strength to get up again
I don't know if I can face my own reflection
Jesus, take this heart that feels so cold again
And make it new

I hold this hope inside that You'll never leave me

When all around me starts to fall
And when my faith it seems so small
Even in my darkest hour, I will believe

I don't know how I could turn my back and walk away
All I really want is for Your love to hold me
Jesus, take this heart and make it whole again

I know You'll never leave me

When all around me starts to fall
And when my faith it seems so small
Even in my darkest hour, I will believe

Even if the sun begins to fall
Even when I feel nothing at all
Even if I'm all alone, I will believe
I believe, I believe, I believe

When all around me starts to fall
And when my faith it seems so small
Even in my darkest hour

When all around me starts to fall
And when my faith it seems so small
Even in my darkest hour, I will believe

Even if the sun begins to fall
Even when I feel nothing at all
Even if I'm all alone, I will believe
I believe, I believe, I believe
Even if I'm all alone, I will believe
