

Defender Of The Brave

Majesty

In the times when the clans ruled the land.
The ground filled with blood of true heroes.
When children have killed on command.
The lord of the damned brought them nightfall.

"Up In the sky
I heard a call.
I'm on my way to bring them glory.
I'm sworn to ride
Until I fall.
I am the one, their chosen son.

They are calling me defender
Defender of the brave
Never I surrender
My mission is to stay."

When all of the hope they once had
Was killed by their final surrender.
There's one chance to go, they all said.
So they called for the chosen defender.

"Up In the sky
I heard a call.
I'm on my way to bring them glory.
I'm sworn to ride
Until I fall.
I am the one, their chosen son.

They are calling me defender
Defender of the brave
Never I surrender
My mission is to stay."

"The sky is bright, the stars all shine.
I feel the wind of cold december.
My given right to wear the sign,
To carry the sword of the defender.
Up In the sky I heard a call.
I'm on my way to bring them glory.
I'm sworn to ride until I fall.
I am the one, their chosen son."

They are calling me defender
Defender of the brave
Never I surrender
My mission is to stay."
