

Sons Of A New Millennium (Single Version)

Majesty

We are the sons of a new millennium
Let the revolution begin
So watch - tonight the storm will come
And we are born again

Stand up for a reason
Shout out with one voice
No longer retreating
Kick down all of the doors

Forever we're fighting
See the truth in the words
Let 'em speak all around the world
Let them be heard

We are the sons of a new millennium
Let the revolution begin
So watch - tonight the storm will come
And we are born again

We are made for a free world
No more cheating and fakes
Let us fight for a new way
Before it's too late

Join the revolution
You should believe in yourself
Because you are strong
A millennium son

We are the sons of a new millennium
Let the revolution begin
So watch - tonight the storm will come
And we are born again
