

Man on the Wall

Major Accident

Is he on the wall, or is he in your head
He's watching you, he's just ahead
He's off the wall, he's a bird of prey
He's stalking you, can't run away

Believe your eyes, it can't be right
Think that it might be your unlucky night
Turn away, but he's still there
Tries to kill you with his evil stare

He screams at you, but he can't be heard
Speaks to you, doesn't say a word
Here to stay, but you can't win
Then you feel, he's on your skin

He's still there on the wall
He hasn't moved at all
Oh, man upon the wall
Forever on the wall
