

Valerie

Major Accident

You didn't want me anymore,
Didn't need my anymore
You just didn't give a damn
Where were you when I needed you
When I was nearly through
You just stood there and you laughed

Now you've gone forever
Valerie, you're so mean to me
Shall I swear, pull my hair
Yet I love you still

I would come walking home at night
Cause I couldn't stand nor fight
You would kick me when I was down
I would just wake up feeling fine
Couldn't walk the thin line
I just looked and I smiled

Soon I began to cuss you out
You just took me for a lout
But then I pulled you straight
Get out and leave my life alone
I am better on my own
Ridiculed forever
