

Make It Precious

Make Me Famous

Ohh!!

Let me see, see your dreams
And just let me touch your heart again
On the street where my beliefs
Never caused you no pain

People hurt
They always leave in just a minute
For all those woken in my shirt
(You should admit!) that I just did it
That I just did it

Feels so hard to find the reason of love
Can't take any longer
You're so much stronger
Since I've been dreaming of a sign from above
Don't get any better
Nothing does matter
My eyes are open wide to see what's coming next
The trace I walk is so empty
I'll give my life to make you never forget
Who the hell you wanted to make me
I'm better than you could be

Always so sure
That you can climb the sky
Settle down your mind
And never ever die
Come and kiss me
Oh darling, make me believe
That I could ever give it back,
Just turn my back and leave

Never knew if my words
Would make sense again
When you extend your name
With titles and awards
If there is a time for words
To make sense again?
If there is a planet of hopes
Where you and me remain?
You mesh my head
And that's the worst thing you could do
I never knew if my words would make sense again

Feels so hard to find the reason of love
You're so much stronger
Since I've been dreaming of a sign from above
Don't get any better
My eyes are open wide to see what's coming next
The trace I walk is so empty
I'll give my life to make you never forget
Who the hell you wanted to make me

A tiny border between love and hate

Yeah babe, I was laughing
But now it's true
So make up your mind
And look for your heartbeat
I would connect my life
With every single part

Yeah babe, I was lying
But now it's true
So make up your mind

People hurt - they always leave in just a minute
For all those woken in my shirt - admit that i just did it

People hurt - they always leave in just a minute
For all those woken in my shirt

Admit that I just did it bitch.

Ohh!
