

Awaken The Tides

Malefice

We have been creed of sin we will cast our cares to the wind
You will behold his greatness with your own eyes
The worship of a false hypocrisy
When will the cost meet your demands
No more innocent souls condemned
How many more will you expend
Divide and conquer

The between worlds of a dying apathy
This is more than a call to arms
This is a fucking revolution
Blind submission threatens the survival of the heed

Breed genocide of a fallen race
This is a mass execution
Ignite the skies
Burn down the heavens
Empires lay in ruins, buried by time
Crushed by the divine
My words heed, consumed by your greed

Separate the truth from fiction
Reject faith and acknowledge reason, sever the head of the authority
Ensure the existence of the majority, terminate this ruthless tyranny
Destruction my worlds of the lost skies
Awaken the tides
You can't stop the infernal machine
What happens when we enforce the very peace that we merciless
Corruption breeds dissent among humanity
