

The Haunting

Malefice

Prayed for the blackened apart
With a broad weight of the world
Bleeding am I loved you my lessons the hard way
The birth of a new day touches my skin I inhale deeply
Watch me bleed for you (bleed for you)

Embarrassed of your own demise
Remorse this and disperse of regret
So let the darkness consume you
With not a moments haste of heart
Your world comes crashing down on you

Punished for his temptation
The haunting opened his eyes
I watch events unfold
The curse, of the touch of gold

I watch events unfold
The curse, of the touch of gold

Blinded by materialistic and selfish views
With not a moment to spare, you wish your life away again
